

The TinyLittleBigBand is the most stylish band in the Netherlands.

The band consists of lead singer Franklin Brown, known for his participation in the Eurovision Song Contest, pianist Pieter van Santen, double bassist Bas Schneider and drummer Rene Winter.

Ever since the band was founded, the TinyLittleBigBand has mastered the right combination of repertoire, impeccable appearance and entertainment of the highest level. That is why they can be found frequently in places such as the Amstel Hotel, Huis Ter Duin and other top locations.

The repertoire consists of classic jazz songs by Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin and Sammy Davis jr. and others. But also swinging danceable versions of modern songs arranged in their own way. That mixed with atmospheric ballads makes the band suitable for every occasion and location. Whether it is a stylish dinner, a wedding or a spectacular company party, the TinyLittleBigBand provides the right ambiance.

The TinyLittleBigBand performs in different compositions and is therefore suitable for every conceivable event. They can be booked as a four-man combo, as a compact big band with a horn section, but also with guest singers such as Karin Bloemen or the Triolettes.

The TinyLittleBigBand has already performed at many gala dinners, weddings, receptions, festivals, living room concerts, corporate events, premieres, theater, radio and television programs.

